

the voting district.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Murphy.

SENATOR MURPHY: Senator Goodrich makes a very severe plea to help eliminate unemployment, and I would point out to Senator Goodrich that within the last two or three weeks the Omaha World Herald carried an article that Northern Natural Gas had acquired several blocks in the blighted area of lower Omaha and, Heavens to Betsy, without so much as a single tax dollar they are going to build... they are going to tear down and build, construct a new multilevel office building of which they will occupy only a portion. But I just can't believe anybody in this state can do anything without some kind of a tax exemption. It confounds me.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Goodrich, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR GOODRICH: Senator Murphy just gave some false information to the body. I think I better correct it. The property....

SPEAKER MARVEL: I'm sorry, I have not recognized you. You will have to come up at your turn.

SENATOR GOODRICH: It was only a half a block.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Reutzel.

SENATOR REUTZEL: Question.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The question has been called for. Do I see five hands? Okay, the question is shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. Have you all voted? We are voting on ceasing debate. Record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 2 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, debate is ceased. The Chair recognizes Senator Beutler to close on his amendment.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, let me address myself first of all to a couple of comments that were made by other people on the floor earlier. First of all, it was suggested that there might be a problem negotiating with bond people. I am not sure exactly what was meant by that. Certainly the school
